you are going to be in estoniaand as you know we talked about israel for this trip as well potentially (although maybe we are never going there....).

ii told zach becfore they scheduled to do it earlier in the week if they really wanted you to be able to come.

he said they couldnt and you and i discussed getting the dvd for you.

i did tell cvc as well that moving party from the april 10th date to the 24th would make it difficult for you to go. unless you want us to make the schedule work somehow.

Dear Hillary,

Zach and Radha's film, The Western Front, has been selected for screening by the Tribeca Film Festival. The first screening for family and friends will be on Friday, April 23rd at 7:30 pm on the Intrepid. Below is a link to the press release and a trailer will be online in the coming weeks.

It would mean the world to Zach and, of course, Ken, Kiva and me if you would save the date and join us to celebrate this moment.

Please RSVP to Sara Spagnuolo at [redacted]
 [redacted] or 917-923-1702 by April 1st as there is limited seating.

As always and with love,

Jill and Ken
