Subject: FW: REVISED: CFR 2.0 draft

Below and attached is a proposed draft for a speech next Thursday at CFR. You'll recall that we discussed this with you at the last speech meeting. The idea is to give a speech one year after your last CFR address that updates and amplifies the frame you outlined, and fills it in with the work of the past year. The speech will also underscore the continuity between your speech and the National Security Strategy.

The below draft still needs a good bit of work, but we have between now and next Thursday to get it into shape. AMS was initially skeptical, but I think she believes the speech is heading in the right direction (she'll write you with specific comments ... I have my own suggestions for further improvement) and that on balance it should be given. Derek is a strong proponent of the speech, and Jim, who has not read a draft, embraced the concept.
