B6

Heard this morning that Rahm is coming to town this weekend to "visit friends." Second City is going to love these goings on.....remember Council Wars?

The Virgin Mary?? Well, that's a claim to fame!

The week before the weekend of weddings I have to be at the UN General Assembly in NYC and I will not know whether I have to work on Sat until that week [redacted]

And pls keep me updated on all the Mayoral gossip. I can't tell yet whether Rahm will actually decide to run. So it will be a wild ride the next few months.

As Roy Spence would say, Ride at Dawn (whatever that means!!)

Rahm rumors are everywhere. So is Tom Dart, the Sheriff, and a great guy. And, of course, every alderman, including Danny Solis and MOC, Danny Davis. The tributes in my daily Herald (Arlington Hts based; 3rd largest circulation in the State) had some very stirring tributes from suburban mayors. I believe we have had 48 years of Daley rule in Chicago. How will this impact the Nov election? [redacted]

[redacted] I have a call into O'Keefe to get the real scoop on what's going to happen. I am going to stream your speech this morning. [redacted] [redacted] as the Virgin Mary--not sure how old she would be. Love you. B

I'm in shock too. What reason did he give and who does he favor to succeed him? Pls share any and all insights into this huge news (as any real Chicagoan knows it to be!)

Mayor Daley just announce that he will not seek re-election. We're in shock.
