As plausible as it is depressing. There are four levels of issues in play (current banking crisis; financial governance structures; structural economic reform; and long-term debt). And there are 27 players, in at least 3 groups (debtors, AAA countries, and the UK), not to mention ECB, IMF, Eurogroup, parliaments, etc. And somehow Von Rompuy/Barroso are supposed to cut a deal among all these players on all these issues -- by Friday.
