The team believes you should do this call now. They have no further info beyond what Richard told you. You will see that there are two different paths depending on how the conversation goes. If it goes reasonably well, the first path is basically a repeat of yesterday. If it goes badly, the team wants you to discuss what will have to happen this week. If it stays bad, the team would like you to start raising more basic questions. You can see this from the progression of the points, pasted below.

Talking points for Karzai call
