FYI. I am forwarding you a message I just sent to Rai about the article in today's Washington Post. [Redacted]

[Redacted]

He and I agreed to work closely on this issue. I have asked INR to get us some research on the security issue which the implementing partners frequently raise [Redacted] Note the comment in the Post about the security situation.

As you know we are moving forward on the broader branding issue and plan to have a team of experts advise us as we move forward.

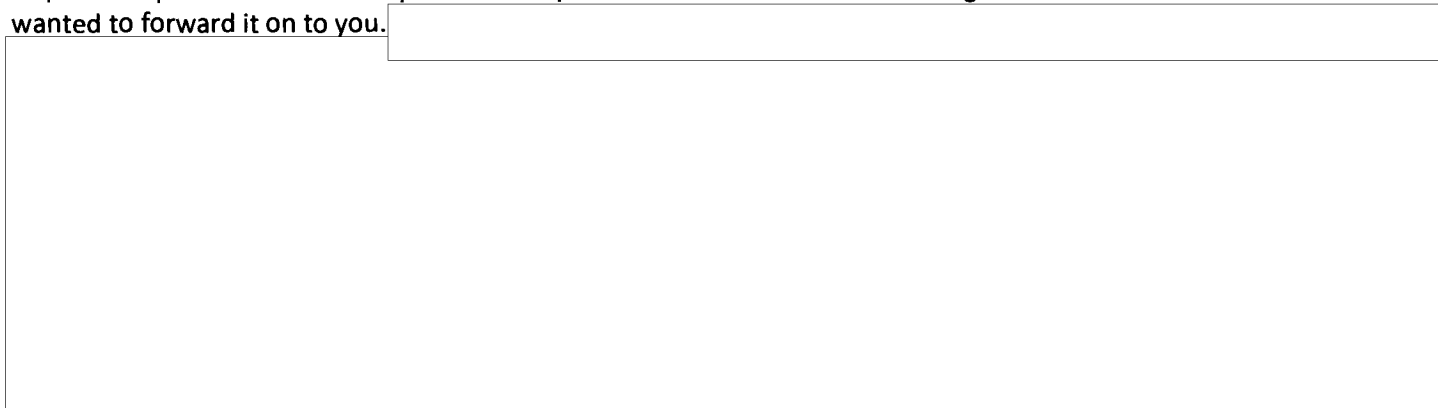

I will keep you posted.

Raj:

Hope the trip went well. You may have already seen the attached article but in light of our recent conversations I wanted to forward it on to you.

Please know that I will help you in any way I can to deal with this situation.

Look forward to discussing it further when you return.
