Including the students was absolutely worth it.

Nora, I'll email David to thank him, but wanted you to know what a positive experience we had with the schools we worked with.

Chelsea,

I just wanted to thank you for the opportunity that was given to our group of student here at KIPP DC AIM ACADEMY. After having discussions with them regarding the conference it appears that they were inspired and empowered to continue on a path of women empowerment and growth. Many of them had great ideas on what they could do as young girls to help with this movement. (Starting a group here at the school which focuses on women/girl issues). Also having more of a voice in the world. I am excited to continue this momentum with them and see it evolve.

On another note,

As a woman, to be amongst so many powerful women who are all making impacts in their countries across the globe truly inspired me.

I will now look to see what more I can do to continue to make an impact in this country.

All 3 women on the panel was admirable and inspiring with their own tales of accomplishments and personal journeys.

Secretary Clinton has always been a powerful leader that I have looked up to throughout the years, so I was grateful for the opportunity to be in her presence.

Thank you again and please keep us in mind for opportunities like this in the future!

Best Regards,
