Subject: RE: No statement out of Cairo meeting

I talked to Lynn Pascoe. As expected [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Pascoe recommended that, if asked by the media, we simply point to the statements made by UNSYG Ban, Amre Moussa, and Catherine Ashton afterwards, which used the points we needed in terms of Q having lost his legitimacy, transition starting, etc.

No statement is better than a bad statement, but we could still have articles about divisions in the international community as demonstrated by the lack of statement. So thanks for the warning. Ron, better get the Libya crowd and media crowd to work on media guidance.

Lynn Pascoe just phoned to say that the Cairo meeting did not produce a statement. He knew that P was concerned by the possibility that any statement coming out of Cairo would be weaker than what we got in Doha yesterday. - rw
