Subject: Two options

1.

The US views the Transitional National Council as the sole/only legitimate interlocutor of the Libyan people during this interim period, as Libyans come together to plan their own future and a permanent, inclusive constitutional system that protects the rights of all Libyans. This is in contrast to the Qadhafi regime, which has lost all legitimacy to rule.

2.

The US views the Transitional National Council as the legitimate interlocutor of the Libyan people during this interim period, as Libyans come together to plan their own future and a permanent, inclusive constitutional system that protects the rights of all Libyans. This is in contrast to the Qadhafi regime, which has lost all legitimacy to rule. The TNC is the institution through which we are engaging the Libyan people at this time.
