

RELEASE IN PART B6

---

From: Mills, Cheryl D <MillsCD@state.gov>
Sent: Tuesday, August 23, 2011 8:16 PM
To: H
Subject: Fw: @JohnCornyn, 8/23/11 6:29 PM

---

From: Miguel Rodriguez [mailto: ]
Sent: Tuesday, August 23, 2011 07:26 PM
To: Campbell, Kurt M; Adams, David S; Macmanus, Joseph E; Mills, Cheryl D; Sullivan, Jacob J; Patel, Nirav S
Subject: @JohnCornyn, 8/23/11 6:29 PM

B6B6

Sen. John Cornyn told reporters Tuesday that not selling Taiwan F-16s would send the wrong message to U.S. allies and could cost 2,300 jobs at the Lockheed Martin factory in Texas that makes them.

He said Congress may still be able to amend the defense authorization bill to meet Taiwan's request.

JohnCornyn (@JohnCornyn)

8/23/11 6:29 PM

AP: Senator: Congress Could Approve Taiwan F-16 Sales <http://t.co/DxJVX9W>

Sent from my iPad