

RELEASE IN PART B5

---

From: Huma Abedin <Huma@clintonemail.com>
Sent: Monday, July 18, 2011 1:54 AM
To: H; 'SullivanJJ@state.gov'
Subject: Re: Opposition leader

Bob and phil are both coming

----- Original Message -----

From: H
Sent: Monday, July 18, 2011 01:49 AM
To: 'sullivanjj@state.gov' <sullivanjj@state.gov>
Cc: Huma Abedin
Subject: Re: Opposition leader

Ok. Is Bob coming to mtg? I could ask him to describe the Korea experience.

Also, is Phil Gordon coming? I'd like him to read the Javelin memo w/o any preconceptions and give us his reaction. If he's coming w you, can you both come see me before mtg?

----- Original Message -----

From: Sullivan, Jacob J [mailto:SullivanJJ@state.gov]
Sent: Monday, July 18, 2011 01:41 AM
To: H
Subject: Fw: Opposition leader

Fyi

----- Original Message -----

From: Hormats, Robert D.
Sent: Monday, July 18, 2011 01:37 AM
To: Sullivan, Jacob J
Subject: Opposition leader

Hi Jake,

In several ways,

B5

The example of Kim Dae Jung in Korea is a good one: as a candidate for pres he bitterly opposed the IMF program. But then supported in the national interest -- which not only saved the economy from bankruptcy but lead to its dramatic revival. And he came across as a hero for putting the national interest above party interests and for the ultimate success of the policy. I was financial advisor to Korea at the time -- and the national unity this produced had a profound impact on markets and respect for korea around the world.

See you soon,
Bob