I strongly believe it is worth following up on.

Cheryl/Jake,

When we were discussing whether to accept the Pentagon's offer of a replacement for Gen. Selva a few months ago, we also discussed making a reciprocal offer of a senior FSO to travel with the incoming Chairman of the Joint Chiefs. If we are still interested in pursuing, S's meeting with Gen. Dempsey later this week provides a unique opportunity for her to mention the idea and to plant the seed for assigning an FSO to travel with him.

Let me know whether this is worth following up on. If so, I can prepare a point to add to S's BCL.

Andrew
