* Service is expected to last one hour.

Musical Selections: The hymn "Jerusalem" by William Blake and the traditional "Greensleeves." Such well-known hymns as "Love Divine All Love Excelling" and "Guide Me O Though Great Redeemer" – better known in modern Britain as the Welsh rugby anthem "Bread of Heaven" – are also on the schedule. The bride will walk down the aisle to the choral anthem "I Was Glad" by Sir Charles Hubert Hastings Parry, composed for the coronation of William's great-great-great grandfather Edward VII at Westminster Abbey in 1902.

The program also provides the wording to the couple's vows. Kate, like Princess Diana in her wedding to Prince Charles in 1981, will not promise to obey her husband. Instead she will vow to "love, comfort, honor and keep" William. Because only Kate will wear a wedding ring, only William will say "With this ring I thee wed" as he slips the band on his bride's finger.

- 7:15 a.m.: The carriage procession of the bride and groom with a captain's escort of the Household Cavalry, followed by the queen's procession with a sovereign's escort of the Household Cavalry, leaves the abbey for Buckingham Palace. The bride and groom will be in the 1902 state landau, or the glass coach if it is raining.
- 7:30 a.m.: The bride's carriage procession arrives at Buckingham Palace.

7:40 a.m.: Members of the royal family and members of foreign royal families arrive at Buckingham Palace.

7:40 a.m.: Other guests for the reception arrive at Buckingham Palace.

8:25 a.m.: The queen and the bride and groom, together with their families, appear on the balcony.

8:30 a.m.: Fly-past by the Royal Air Force and Battle of Britain Memorial Flight.
