Dear Hillary,
Below you will find a note from Valerie on a Global Zero summit at Yale in February. I want to take this occasion to wish you, WJC and Chelsea and Marc all the very best this holiday season and in 2012. You have been a voice of reason in the cacophony that passes for discourse in our international affairs, and a beacon of hope for women throughout the world. Thank you and your family for your tremendous service to humankind. With warmest personal regards. Joe

Dear Madam Secretary,

Joe and I have watched your world-wide travels from afar with amazement and admiration (how do you do it??) – your energy and conviction of cause is evident, and we feel fortunate that you are representing our country so magnificently. Thank you.

Your office should have received a formal invitation several weeks ago from Global Zero to speak to students from around the world interested in stopping nuclear proliferation at Yale University on February 18th and 19th. Confirmed speakers include Ambassador Richard Burt, Dr. Hans Blix, Dr. Lawrence Korb, Ambassador Steve Pifer, General (ret) Jack Sheehan and myself. We would be truly delighted and honored if you could consider attending this special event that will be so effective toward inspiring and igniting young people's passion and concern about the nuclear threat. They will return to their various college campuses in the United States and around the world to start Global Zero chapters so that politicians clearly hear the voice of the people on this issue so critical to our civilization's survival. This conference comes on the heels of two very successful Global Zero gatherings already this year: London in June and at the Reagan Library in October.

Also, we will be screening "Countdown to Zero" at the coming New Year's Renaissance Weekend in Charleston, SC and hosting a panel afterward. I look forward to engaging more folks on proliferation. To my way of thinking, if we don't get this right – then none of our other concerns matter much.

Attached, please find another copy of the invitation as well as information on the Yale Summit

Joe and I send our wishes for peaceful, happy holidays and a healthy and successful 2012.

Thank you again for your consideration and please know that you are welcome any time to our home in Santa Fe.

Sincerely, Valerie Plame Wilson
