H,
 Sent this missive from Simon to Phil Goldberg and Tom Siebert, but your wishes for a diplomat to attend certainly takes precedence. Akin to our Wounded Warriors and a room full of intell, security & military Brits in London. Simon offers a seat among 700 people attending. And....hold tight to that great young lady Huma. A terrific gal, undeserving of such garbage. Best,
 M

Marty

I attach below the outline of a Charity sportsman's dinner at which I have reserved a table for 12 guests on the evening of June 22nd.

So far the guest list is as follows:-

Sir David Veness	Former Head of Counter terrorism for Scotland Yard and head of Security for the UN
Rear Admiral Scott Lidbetter	Former Head of HM Amphibious Forces
Captain James Rapp RN	Now Chairman of Open Source Intelligence Company
Daniel Clements	Former Royal marine and SF Commando – Now with Open Source
Intelligence
Jeffery Cooke	Former Head of Security for the Royal Households
Michael Miles	Director of Technocover (Partners to Becatech)

SAS)	John Brammer	Director of Arturus Security Consulting (Former Major 22 Regiment
	Marcus Naraidoo	Global Partner Intelligence and Security for Price Waterhouse Cooper
	Simon Cross	Sales and Marketing Director Becatech
	Kevin Metcalfe	Chief Operations Officer Becatech Ltd
	Myself

I was wondering if there was someone from the US that we might include for the evening. I am not sure who is in town or who might be at the embassy who might enjoy such an evening but as we are looking at doing more than half of our trade in the USA over the next few years it might be appropriate to begin to build some bridges with the Embassy here or, if someone is in country I would be delighted to have them join us. Outline details below:-

Please feel free to advise.

The evening will be hosted by Major General Andrew Salmon (Former Commandant General of the Royal Marines)

The inaugural Royal Marines Sportsman's Dinner, sponsored by the CBI, is to be held in the beautiful surroundings of the Hurlingham Club, London, on Wednesday 22nd June 2011. This spectacular event offers a superb evening of fine cuisine, sport and entertainment, hosted by Martin Bayfield, featuring the Royal Marines Band, in the company of the best of Britain's Sports Personalities, including Martin Johnson and members of the current England Rugby Team, Sir Clive Woodward and Jason Leonard and a host of others. The evening will culminate with a charity auction, offering 'money can't buy' experiences with the Royal Marines chaired by Jonny Gould and close with entertainment from the Rick Parfitt Junior Band. Further information and access to the booking form are available via this link: <http://www.fireball.co.uk/emailers/rmsd/rmsd.html> or as detailed on the enclosed flyer.

The Sportsman's Dinner seeks to raise essential funds for The C Group, a registered charity supporting the growing list of Royal Marines that have sustained life-changing injuries on operations, to help them to overcome their injuries through opportunity, and to establish a pathway for their futures. With 3 Commando Brigade's deployment to Afghanistan ongoing, and a growing list of Marines requiring our support, there could be no better time to support this charity.
