Cheryl:

I have been working with Liz Bagley and the Foreign Affairs Museum Council on their project. Liz has done a sensational job raising funds and we are in need of one more major effort to secure the first stage funding. That depends heavily now on getting a suitable reception/meeting built around Secretary Clinton. I can only imagine the requests for her time and the pressing travel and other commitments. The world gets no easier. I would be most grateful if there is anything you can do with her to try to nail this down around the time frame suggested by Liz which I think is over the next couple of months.

Please use my interest in this if it matters to Secretary Clinton or anyone else and know that I am as always very grateful for your help.

Also please thank the Secretary for her very helpful and informative letter on involving women more effectively in the search for Arab-Israeli peace. I am most grateful to hear about all that she and Milan and the rest of your are doing.

Sincerely,

Tom Pickering
