Dear Secretary Clinton,

Just a brief note to you and Melanne to thank you for inviting me to be a part of APEC. Your speech was truly riveting and I do think an inflection in point for women world wide. I believe we will look back and say that was the moment when everyone began to understand not just the human rights argument, but the economic argument. So proud to have been a part of it.

Also, thank you for doing the Q&A with us this week for Newsweek. Much of this week's issue is devoted to the progress women are (and are not) making, including a fantastic interview with President Dilma Rouseff. We have sent one to your office and hope you enjoy!

Best,
Tina
