Dear Cheryl:

I hope you are well – thank you for fixing Bulgaria. I'm writing because I finally read the agenda for the Newsweek/Daily Beast event in NYC – and I am writing to say I am very proud of you! I'm sorry that I won't be there – I waited too long to RSVP. I'm so pleased you are getting recognized for the work you are doing – you have made a huge difference. Along the same lines, – I had a meeting with Deputy Assistant Secretary Phil Reiker who was practically glowing as he described Secretary Clinton's personal engagement in resolving the framework issues between Serbia and Kosovo last week. I spent an hour with Phil trying to figure out if there is a way to get the name issue resolved between Macedonia and Greece so Macedonia could get into NATO - - Anyway that's another story -- I want to say how proud I am of the Secretary literally every meeting I have at State (and I have a lot of them) professionals speak so proudly of her work, her commitment, her skill, her intelligence and her dedication. All the attributes I know well – but it's good to hear others recognize them. Sorry I will miss you in NYC –

All my best,
 Karen
