

Classified by DAS, A/GIS, DoS on 02/29/2016 ~ Class: CONFIDENTIAL ~ Reason: 1.4(B), 1.4(D) ~ Declassify on: 03/27/2032

RELEASE IN PART 1.4(B),B1,B5,1.4(D)

From: Sullivan, Jacob J <SullivanJJ@state.gov>
Sent: Tuesday, March 27, 2012 7:27 AM
To: H
Subject: Fw: Seoul, March 27

FYI

----- Original Message -----

From: Burns, William J
Sent: Tuesday, March 27, 2012 05:27 AM
To: Sullivan, Jacob J
Cc: Zeya, Uzra S
Subject: Seoul, March 27

1.4(D)
B1
1.4(B)

Highlights for S:

1. NSS: As is so often the case, Summit itself pretty ritualistic exercise, but helped drive solid set of actions to safeguard nuclear materials. Some of participants couldn't resist temptation to add politics to mix: [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] Good time had by all.

2. [redacted]
[redacted]

3. [redacted]
[redacted]

4. [redacted]

B5

5. Bildt: He and I had good conversation on Balkans. B appreciative of your efforts with Tadic and Thaci, thinks Bosnia-Herz on more promising track. Looks forward to your visit.

6. FM Amr: He thinks IMF deal will be finished by end of April. Appreciative of movement on FMF/ESF. Understands that we'll want to finalize debt relief/cash transfer with new civ govt after IMF deal. Off to Baghdad for Arab Summit tomorrow, and will see you in Istanbul at Friends of Syria.

7. King Abdullah: Worried on Syria, said efforts with Pals and Isr out of gas.

8. Aliyev: Still upbeat over Dick M and prospects for bilat rels, but gloomy on N-K.

9. [redacted]
[redacted]

Back in DC late Tues night.

All best,

Bill

B1
1.4(B)
1.4(D)