Sure. I had been scheduled to be in Beijing only for the SSD the day before you arrive, and then for the first day of the S+ED, which includes the SSD report. So departing late May 3 had been plan all along; only question had been whether to go to Jordan or back to DC for Foreign Affairs Day. Anyway, will do whatever you think best. See you shortly. Bill

Bill--

In looking at the S&ED schedule, I think it may be difficult for you to leave in the midst of the meetings. Let's discuss today. Thx.
