B5

(SBU) Background: Negotiators from Sudan and South Sudan have convened under the facilitation of the African Union High-level Implementation Panel in Addis Ababa since 4 September for what should be the final round of negotiations before President Mbeki submits his final report on the status of negotiations to the AU Peace & Security Council. This was to have been done by 22 September, but will now be presented after the end of talks and the presidential summit now occurring on September 23.

1.4(D)
B1

Sudan has continued to refuse the map depicting this zone as required by AU Peace & Security Council and UNSC Resolution 2046, despite AUHIP technical proposals to overcome the issue. The parties are nearing detailed agreement on final arrangements for oil and financial issues

The parties agree to AU facilitation to help negotiate the status of five agreed disputed areas,

The five agreed disputed areas were agreed by the parties during the CPA Interim Period.

In addition to your call to President Kiir, former U.S. President Carter will call President Bashir to press similar points.
