Jake and Huma --

Greetings. It was wonderful to see you both this week, and it was especially reassuring to see the Secretary (for whom I'd walk on hot coals barefoot). While I don't regret my move, I do miss you all. And I still feel as though I'm on some weird TDY that will end soon and my old life will resume. I've not yet fully adjusted to the implications of leaving!

Anyway, those are my dispiriting thoughts on a Sunday night.

Cheers,
Jeff

Could do at Waldorf or coffee shop ... she's thinking an informal chat on everything going on in your former region of concern right now.
