

RELEASE IN PART
B6

From: Valmoro, Lona J <ValmoroLJ@state.gov>
Sent: Wednesday, April 11, 2012 5:49 AM
To: H
Subject: Re: Tam a U.S. Citizen at last!!

Will do.

From: H [mailto:HDR22@clintonemail.com]
Sent: Tuesday, April 10, 2012 10:36 PM
Cc: Valmoro, Lona J
Subject: Fw: Tam a U.S. Citizen at last!!

Forgot to copy you.

From: H
Sent: Tuesday, April 10, 2012 09:14 PM
To: 'ttranviet [redacted]' <ttranviet([redacted])>
Subject: Re: Tam a U.S. Citizen at last!!

B6

Dear Tam--

Hooray! I am so happy and proud for you and for our country that you are now a citizen. I hope you and Julie come by to see me so I can congratulate you in person. I'm copying Lona so she can start looking for a time.

Congratulations, my friend. H

From: Tam [mailto:ttranviet([redacted])]
Sent: Tuesday, April 10, 2012 05:58 PM
To: H
Subject: Tam a U.S. Citizen at last!!

B6

Dear Hillary--

I wanted to share with you that I was naturalized and took the citizenship oath this morning at the US District Court in DC. The oath was administered by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly. I am so overjoyed and can barely contain myself. Thank you for everything - I am incredibly grateful to you and countless other friends who supported and believed in me.

Attached are a few pictures from today. Julie was at my side, as was my boss, friend and mentor Senate Sergeant-At-Arms Terry Gainer, Kate Beale and Jon Cardinal.

Talk to you soon and best wishes from a new and very proud American!

Tam