ST also clarified that there are now three super ministries in the president's office that should facilitate engagement and grease skids a bit more on initiatives. He oversees the key econ ministries (rail, finance, energy, etc); Aung Min is the foreign pol/natl security guy (Home Afrs, For Afrs, Immigration, etc); and Tin Nyein Thann (sic?), the former planning minister, is taking on econ planning and aid coordination. Latter is our guy for Jan it seems (he's not on this delegation), tho ST can assist as well.

On other fronts, ST lamented that not all pol prisoners were released couple weeks back. Pres blinked in reaction to conservatives in Home Affairs and military. He understood that small moves at this point are unhelpful politically for Burma and has said as much to TS. [Redacted]
